Society

The members of the St. Joseph Sewing circle and their friends will hold their annual picnic in Springbrook park Wednesday. The party will leave the street car station at 10 o'clock.

A special meeting of the Business Women's club will be held at the First Presbyterian church Tuesday night at 8:45 o'clock to elect a delegate from the class to the Y. W. C. A. conference at Lake Geneva in August.

The north section of the Women's League of the First Methodist church will meet Wednesday with Mrs. D. W. Tucker.

Mrs. Charles Martin entertained a company of 20 friends informally Sunday afternoon celebrating the 34th birthday anniversary of her husband. The afternoon was spent with music and dainty refreshments were served.

ETON TO HAVE 'NOTHER PRINCE

Third Son of King to Enter School But Classmates Not Enthusiastic.

LONDON, July 21.—Eton college, most famous and ancient of the exclusive establishments called "public schools" in England, is preparing with mixed feelings for the arrival of Prince Henry, third son of King George, who begins his studies there this fall.

The usual precautions against epidemics are being redoubled this summer, and royal sanitary experts have turned the college upside down in their search for faulty drains, etc. The medical examination of returning scholars will be more severe than ever while Prince Henry is at Eton, and to make doubly sure the prince will begin each term a fortnight later than his schoolfellows, in order to give him the authorities a chance of detecting and insulating infectious cases.

From the point of view of the boys a royal schoolmate is not an unmixed blessing, for there is a feeling that a friendship with the prince may be condemned as sucking up to royalty. In this respect, Etonians are very democratic and the chosen friends of Prince Arthur of Connaught, the present Grand Duke of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha, (then Duke of Albany), and the Battenberg princes, received no special treatment from less favored schoolfellows to "keep them from getting too cocky," over the honor done them.

Viscount Clifden, trusted member of the royal entourage, speaking at a gathering of old Etonians the other day, admitted that as a boy he used to look forward with dread to invitations to Windsor Castle or Sandringham. He was always a favorite with Queen Victoria, the late King Edward, and the Connaughts, but his schoolmates always beat him after each visit.

LITTLE OLD NEW YORK

BY NORMAN.

NEW YORK, July 21.—On a recent very hot day a subway train pulled into the Grand Central station. When it's hot above ground it's HOT in the subway, and so it was this day.

Into one of the cars crept a sad-looking individual, wrapped in a long ulster. He was unmistakably suffering from the heat. He sat down in a corner and looked miserable.

A man next him inquired why he wore an ulster in such weather. The suffering one confessed that underneath it was only underwear. The kind man took up a collection to help the ulstered person get a suit of clothes. At Brooklyn bridge he turned over several dollars to the man in the overcoat.

The latter, with many thanks, left the train and hurried across to an up-bound express. It was his busy day. You can't work on people's sympathies merely by wearing an overcoat unless it's pretty warm.

An elderly man stopped Geo. M. Cohan in 43rd st. "Mr. Cohan," said he, "I merely wish to introduce myself as a veteran song writer and to congratulate you on a discovery that you made early in your career."

"Discovery?" queried Cohan. "What discovery?"

"The discovery, sir," replied the other, "that there is in the English language a rhyme to the word 'baby.' Other song writers had always rhymed it with 'lady'—a most distressing proceeding—until, in your song, I guess I'll have to Telegraph my Baby," you made an actual rhyme with 'may-be.'"

"Thank you," responded Cohan.

BEAUTIFUL CALIFORNIA WIDOW WHO HAS RECENTLY ASSUMED ILLUSTRIOUS NAME

MRS. U. S. GRANT, JR.

Mrs. America Workman Will, a beautiful widow of Los Angeles, Cal., has just announced her marriage to U. S. Grant, the eldest son of the famous statesman and soldier. The wedding took place a week ago, but was kept secret until Saturday. The bridegroom is 60 years of age and the bride is 34. Mr. and Mrs. Grant left Monday for a trip around the world.

"Is that all you had on your chest?"

"No, sir," said the veteran, "I could use a $2 bill if you had one to spare."

"Here you are," answered Cohan, passing over the desired currency, "and you deserve more credit than I do."

"How so?"

"Why, you seem to have made 'baby' rhyme with '$2.'"

A 5th-ay bus stopped at 34th-st. "Hoot!" shouted the conductor to a passenger on the roof, "didn't yez want the Waldorf?"

"Yes," replied the man addressed. "Well, yez'll have to come down here, I can't bring it on the bus for yez."

LOVE WENT OUT IN 4 WEEKS

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., July 21.—Because his bride of four weeks did not love him any more, he said, Herman Anway, 37 years old, an iceman, committed suicide by drinking a bottle of poison after Mrs. Anway had snatched two separate bottles from him.

Doctor's Boyish Face Reveals Skin Renewer

I heard the other day the story of the physician with so admirable a skin that all his women patients asked the secret. He told one, who generously told others, that, knowing the remarkable absorbent property of ordinary mercurized wax, he concluded this substance would make an excellent complexion renewer and preserver. Knowing the wax could not harm the skin, he began using it after shaving.

He soon observed that the old, withered, colorless cuticle was being gradually absorbed and replaced by younger, healthier skin. "This was the simple secret of the silver-haired doctor with the boyish face. The secret became public property. Now women everywhere use mercurized wax, applying it nightly like cold cream, washing it off mornings—continuing until the complexion is entirely renovated. An ounce of this wax, procurable at any druggist's, will banish the worst complexion."

Another valuable rejuvenator used by this doctor was a wrinkle-remover and preventive in the form of a face bath, made by dissolving an ounce of exfolite in a half-pint witch hazel. This also has become famous.—Aurelia in Fashion Review.

CAMP BAKING IS LIMITED

Mrs. Riesenbergs Tells How Some Difficulties May Be Overcome by Out-Door Cook.

BY MRS. EMILY RIESENBERG.

The greatest difficulty camp baking presents is that of adapting the complicated methods of the household cook-book to the limitations of camp life, for you will have to do without most of the home conveniences, such as bread-board, rolling pin, sifter, cutters, etc.

However, you can dispense with all of them if you follow these short recipes given here, and the variety that can be baked in a camp would no doubt surprise the old time camp cook who deemed anything beyond soda bread, corn pone and flapjacks impossible.

When there is no milk on hand to bake with use one-fourth evaporated milk to three-fourths water (or only water). If you have true milk or true egg use this formula:

Two tablespoons of true egg to 2 tablespoonfuls of warm water. Add powdered egg to water, then whisk with a fork until they froth, using as other eggs. This is the equivalent of one egg. If true milk is used, use three to four tablespoons to each cup of water, adding the powdered milk to the flour; then use the water as you would milk.

Making a Cooling Jar. Method—Place milk, butter and cooked food that has to be kept cool in bowls and bottles, with covers set slightly ajar. Now take a large dish or better, a stone jar; place enough stones in bottom to elevate the dishes a little above the top. Fill jar almost to top with cold water, now dip a heavy towel or cloth in water, cover tops of dishes with this cloth and let all edges dip into the water. Set the jar in the shade where the air circulates freely. The constant seeping and evaporation of the water as it passes through the cloth keeps the food sweet and cool. Change the water every two days, and it is best to have two cloths, so one can be washed and sundried while the other is in use.

Quick-Method Camp Biscuit. Ingredients—Four cups flour, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons of shortening, lard and butter and 1 1/2 cups of milk and water.

Method—Mix dry ingredients together, rub shortening in with finger tips or fork and knife, toss the liquid in and stir lightly with a fork, but do not work or stir. As soon as mixed, take up 1 rounded tablespoon at a time and set them side by side in a greased pan; dip the spoon in flour before shaping. Bake in a hot oven, 15 minutes. Have brisk heat for biscuits and bake until light brown and a silver or toothpick if inserted comes out clean.

Camp Fruit Tarts. Method—Prepare as for short cake, divide the batter in two pie tins, spread evenly and thin, press sliced apples or canned peaches over, sugar well and bake until well done and fruit is tender.

Camp Short Cake. Method—Use half of the above recipe, spread the batter evenly in a greased pie tin, bake as directed for biscuits, when done take up and split with a sharp knife; now spread any cooked fruit or fresh berries between layers and on top, such as strawberries, stoned cherries or raspberries mashed and well sugared. Canned peaches or evaporated fruit, well cooked and sweetened are very good.

Camp Spice Cake. Ingredients—One-third cup lard and butter, 1-2 cup sugar, 2 eggs, 1 cup molasses, 1-2 cup hot water, 1-2 cups flour, 1 teaspoon soda and 2 teaspoons cinnamon and ginger.

Method—Mix all dry ingredients, beat sugar, eggs and lard together until light, add hot water to molasses, beat into creamed mass, beat in the flour and bake in greased flat tins.

St. Mary's Grounds Not Open to Public

The authorities at St. Mary's have decided that hereafter the grounds of the institution will not be opened to the public.

Owing to the imposition of some persons who have been freely allowed the use of the grounds, this decision has become necessary.

The speeding of automobiles, besides, being a menace to safety, has also aided in damaging the driveways and shrubbery.

Persons who have business with the institution, or have children in attendance there, will find no difficulty in enjoying the same privileges as in the past and they shall receive courteous attention at all times.

Visitor's Received

During the vacation months visitors who wish to be shown through the buildings at St. Mary's will be accommodated on Tuesday's and Thursday's from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.
